cause or worry as he took command the moment the barrier went up, and after leading all the way won easily from Lord of the Valley. Markana was outfooted all the way and was never dangerous.

St. Tammany Easy Winner.

St. Tammany and Brush Up divided favoritism in the third race, with the former having the call. Kilts was also backed. Brush Up flattered her backers in the early stages by rushing to the front and opening up a gap of half a desen lengths in the first quarter. When Si. Tammany and catching Brush Up at the furlong post passed her without an effort and won going away at the end.

Katle Powers Beats Garnish.

Garnish, with Martin up, was the one selected to capture the fourth race.

Garnish, with Martin up, was the one selected to capture the fourth race and was heavily backed, going to the post a 6 to 5 favor*e. Kattle Powers the Simons stable, was the best played horse in the race. The race furnished a good contest. In the early stages Norwood Ohio displayed lots of speed and he set the pace until, nearing the turn, he fell down. Garnish and Dalesman were his closest attendants up to this point. Nicol waited with Kat's Powers until straightened for the final run, when he came strong and, catching the leaders stopping, won going away.

As soon as Ludlam got his subsect

he moved all his stuff out of the house. A man named Morton, whor une the Forty-first street livery stable, furnished a truck upon which the stuff was carried away. Ludiam flattered himself that he could save his two roulette tables, his fare layout and his thousands of ohips and other necesities for games of chance.

The subpoens called for the appearance of Ludiam at 1 o'clock to-day and he was on time. District-Attorney Ludlam had moved his stuff, for his first question conferned its whereabouts, Ludiam flatly refused to tell. "Now, see here," said the District-Attorney, "I want to tell you that I've
